

List of local Primary and High Schools in the City of Melbourne

Please see below for a list of all schools, both Primary and Secondary, in the City of Melbourne. For more information on the schools please refer to their individual websites or <http://www.myschool.edu.au/>

Primary Schools
School Name	About	Contact and Details
Carlton Primary School	Carlton Primary School is a small, vibrant inner-city school with extensive grounds, gardens and play areas, located close to Melbourne CBD. Our school celebrates its multicultural nature and is proud of its academic results. A unique feature of our school is a family/community engagement worker who supports and resources capacity building programs for students and their families. Carlton Primary School prides itself on the close relationship between teachers and students, and its capacity to meet individual needs. Our school delivers a comprehensive and sequential curriculum, utilising an inquiry approach to teaching and learning with a strong focus on literacy, numeracy and developing a growth mindset in our students.	Drummond St, Carlton VIC 3053 (03) 9347 6022 http://carltonprimaryschool.vic.edu.au/
Carlton Gardens Primary School	Carlton Gardens Primary School is located on the edge of Melbourne's CBD. It stands opposite Carlton Gardens and the Melbourne Museum on busy Rathdowne Street. The historic building which is heritage listed, is situated just one block from the vibrant Lygon Street precinct and is close to the University of Melbourne and The Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology. The school has close links with the Museum and these Universities.  Its students are drawn from the surrounding neighbourhood. Each year several international students also attend and with their parents become significant members of our school community.	215 Rathdowne St, Carlton VIC 3053 (03) 9663 6502 http://www.carltongardens.vic.edu.au/

Kensington Primary School	Kensington Primary School, located four kilometres from the centre of Melbourne, is one of the oldest schools in Victoria. The School has served its vibrant and rapidly changing inner city neighbourhood since 1881 and is proud of the role it plays in community life today. The school community believes that a diversity of cultures and values brings a richness to the school, developing tolerance and understanding and exposing students to other ways of thinking. Over a third of the students are from language backgrounds other than English. The school community includes a significant number of families from Horn of Africa countries as well as smaller numbers of Chinese and Vietnamese families. There are around 20 nationalities represented in the school	62-74 McCracken St, Kensington 3031 (03) 9376 6013 http://www.kensingtonps.vic.edu.au/
----------------------------------	--	--

North Melbourne primary School	North Melbourne Primary School strives to develop a supportive and inclusive learning environment for the areas diverse community. Professional teaching and learning milieu inspires students to become literate, numerate, socially competent, independent and inquisitive learners. The community connects with the nearby academic and medical institutions, Docklands precincts and inner-city dwellers. NMPS has been granted an enrolment ceiling for a number of years and its first priority is to enrol students and their siblings residing in our local neighbourhood area.	210 Errol St, North Melbourne VIC 3051 (03) 9329 6902 http://www.northmelbourneps.vic.edu.au/
St.Michael's Primary School	St Michael's is a Catholic school situated in North Melbourne. Opening in 1857, the Sisters of Mercy ran the school from 1886 until 2002 when the principalship returned to the laity. Our current population of 133 students come from highly multicultural, multi-faith and economically diverse families. St Michael's is committed to excellence and has won numerous Australian government awards in literacy and family-school partnerships.	8 Brougham St, North Melbourne VIC 3051 (03) 9329 9206 http://smnthmelbourne.catholic.edu.au/

South Yarra Primary School	South Yarra Primary School is committed to excellence across the entire curriculum. The explicit teaching and learning program has a focus on individual students. The school is structured intentionally to maximise learning opportunities for our population of children from a wide variety of backgrounds. The school provides a wide variety of extra curricular programs. Student wellbeing is a high priority and intervention is made available for all students who require it. A strong partnership exists between community and school where the teaching and learning team are highly valued	601 Punt Rd, South Yarra VIC 3141  (03) 9866 3424  http://www.southyarraps.vic.edu.au/
Christ Church Grammar School	Christ Church Grammar School is a long established Anglican co-educational primary school in South Yarra. We offer quality education for children from 3-year-old Kindergarten to Year 6. Christ Church is dynamic learning environment where the individual is nurtured. The School believes in strong community relationships that lead to a sense of belonging and a rich and diverse curriculum that meets the needs of each student.	677 Punt Rd, South Yarra VIC 3141  (03) 9866 3540  https://www.ccg.vic.edu.au/enrolment

High Schools
School Name	About	Contact and Details
Kensington Community High School	Kensington Community High School is school that prides itself on practical learning initiatives, a safe and supportive educational environment and improved futures for students. The school believes in providing a quality education to students who have had difficulty accessing or maintaining an education within the mainstream education system. Students from years 7 to 12 have a choice of targeted and managed electives that provide students with a broad and engaging curriculum program. At Years 10, 11 and 12 Vocational Education and Training (VET) certificate programs are also provided with a focus on facilitating the transition between school and the workforce. In Years 11 and 12 a VCAL program is offered with emphasis placed on practical “hands on”, applied learning. The school is small, with a population of approximately 90 students enrolled at any given time.	405 Racecourse Rd, Kensington VIC 3031 (03) 9376 1953 http://www.kchs.vic.edu.au/
The University High School	The University High School enters its 100th year in 2010, having begun as a Year 9 to 12 select entry school. The University High School now caters for approximately 1,225 students, most of whom reside in the local area. A proportion of the School's enrolment comes from further afield to participate in special programs like our music and gifted education program. The school population has a broad socio-economic, cultural and ethnic diversity and the School has a genuine commitment to nurturing this diversity.	77 Story St, Parkville VIC 3052 (03) 9347 2022 http://www.unihigh.vic.edu.au/

St Aloysius Girls College	St Aloysius College is a non-selective Catholic school for girls ideally located in quiet suburban streets near major transport links in the leafy inner-city suburb of North Melbourne. Inspired by their Foundress Catherine McAuley, the School was opened by the Sisters of Mercy in 1887 and today provides a comprehensive education catering for the diverse needs of girls, with an emphasis on building community through personalised learning. The predominant aim of the School is to provide all its students with a holistic set of twenty-first century experiences which promote the development of attitudes, skills and a knowledge base which serve as a conduit for students' critical and creative intelligences.	31 Curran St, North Melbourne VIC 3051  (03) 9329 0411  http://www.aloysius.vic.edu.au/
Victorian College of the Arts	The Victorian College of the Arts Secondary School provides a nationally and internationally recognised specialist program for the training of talented young dancers, musicians and visual artists. Integral to this program is the provision of a high quality academic education that is also offered to other exceptional training organisations. This school has 46.4 equivalent fulltime staff, 2 principal class, 34 teachers and 10.4 educational support staff.	234 St Kilda Rd, Southbank VIC 3006  (03) 8644 8644  http://vcass.vic.edu.au/

P-Yr12 Schools
School Name	About	Contact and Details
Haileybury Independent School	Haileybury is a global private school, with four campuses in Australia and one in China. Each campus maintains its own distinct personality whilst still operating under the one banner of Haileybury. Opening in 2016, Haileybury City is a first for the School and education in Victoria. Haileybury City will be Melbourne CBD's first ELC to Year 12 independent school campus. The Haileybury City Early Learning Centre opened in Term 2 2016 for students in Reception and Pre-Prep. In January 2017, the Campus will open for students in Prep to Year 7 and Year 9.	383 King Street, West Melbourne (03) 9904 6000 http://www.haileybury.com.au/
Melbourne Girls Grammar	Melbourne Girls Grammar (MGGS) is an Anglican School for girls from Early Learning to Year 12 catering for students across the full range of academic ability. The School is divided into four stages of schooling; Early Learning – 3 and 4 Year Olds, Junior Years – Prep to Year 4, Middle Years – Years 5 - 8, and Senior Years – Years 9 - 12. MGGS is a community that embraces its diversity and seeks to offer rich and varied opportunities for all types of girls to pursue their passions and interests. Melbourne Girls Grammar sees itself as a forward-looking community and understand that our students must be prepared for life in an increasingly complex and globally connected world. Their focus is the development of young women with the confidence, skills and experience to excel in life beyond school.	86 Anderson St, South Yarra VIC 3141 (03) 9862 9200 http://www.mggs.vic.edu.au/
Melbourne Grammar School	Situated in the heart of Melbourne, Melbourne Grammar School is one of Australia's oldest schools, committed to being one of the world's leading teaching and learning institutions. Established in 1858, it is an independent Anglican school which attracts students of outstanding academic ability whose final year results are consistently among the country's highest. Most students move to tertiary education and on to professional careers. The School counts many of Australia's highest profile politicians, community and business leaders, academics and sportsmen among its alumni, as well as three former Prime Ministers.	355 St Kilda Rd, Melbourne VIC 3004 (03) 9865 7555 http://www.mgs.vic.edu.au/mg/

	Our vision is to create an innovative, dynamic and technology-rich learning environment that provides every student with opportunities for success, self-discovery and leadership
Victorian College for the Deaf	The Victorian College for the Deaf is a unique school for deaf and hard of hearing students from prep to Year 12. The bilingual philosophy (Auslan/English) is supported by an innovative curriculum that challenges students to achieve their personal best. The school provides programs for both primary and secondary age students and caters for deaf students with disabilities. Broad based programs cater for the individual needs of each student. Development of language and communication skills is a priority across the curriculum. Some country students reside during the week at a family group home located in the southern-eastern suburbs. The College is committed to a bilingual philosophy of teaching Auslan and English and the implementation of VELS as the framework for programs offered at the College.	597 St Kilda Rd, Melbourne VIC 3004 (03) 9510 1706 http://www.vcd.vic.edu.au/
Wesley College-Melbourne	Established in 1866, Wesley College Melbourne, an open-entry school of the Uniting Church and Victorian Registered School No. 1, is one of the largest independent coeducational schools in Australia. Wesley has 3 metropolitan campuses, Elsternwick, Glen Waverley and St Kilda Road and international partnerships with schools around the world. Wesley offers a broad curriculum, a balanced approach to learning, a concern for the whole student and the provision of opportunities for all young people to learn to know, to do, to live with and to be, within an innovative and caring environment. The rich and comprehensive educational program promotes not only excellent academic results, but has a concentrated focus on the arts, sport, outdoor education and community. Each campus has up to three mini-schools, each of which is designed to meet the specific developmental needs of students.	234 St Kilda Rd, Southbank VIC 3006 (03) 8644 8644 http://www.wesleycollege.net/

Compiled by Capital City Local Learning and Employment Network. www.cityllen.org.au Follow us on Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter.